

CALL TO ARTISTS:

There are two commission tiers as a consignee artist at Creative Spirit. In addition to the typical 50% commission for a gallery artist, we also offer the opportunity to participate with a space fee that provides a specific amount of dedicated space and reduces the commission to 20%.

Creative Spirit Artists Gallery considers artwork for consignment from artists whose work will appeal to our customers. If you would like us to consider your work for consignment, please email your request to the gallery and include images of specific pieces, along with a description of the work and your suggested retail price. While your work is being considered for acceptance, we will forward you a copy of our consignment agreement for your review.

Creative Spirit Artists Gallery is a venue that connects artists and customers with the beauty of the Southwest.

“Welcome. Come in and Be Amazed” says the signboard in front of the colorful entrance to Creative Spirit Artists Gallery. Yes, ‘amazed’ is the right term when you see the wonderful art inside. Creative Spirit—which has been open since April 2005—is a bright, well-arranged consignment gallery that specializes in the work of local artists—painters, photographers, flute makers, jewelry and fiber designers, folk artists, wood and iron workers, authors, and more. Creative Spirit Artists Gallery represents artists from the southern Arizona Borderlands area: Santa Cruz County, Cochise County, Pima County.

The six co-owners continue to expand the gallery and attract new artists, including local authors. In addition, Creative Spirit offers space to local nonprofit groups such as Patagonia Area Resource Alliance and The Patagonia Museum.

The gallery is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., seven days a week, throughout the year, closing only on Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year’s Day, and Easter. Our prices range from the affordable to the absolutely worth it. Customers come from all parts of Arizona, from Page to Patagonia, and from all other states and many foreign countries, from Kansas to Kazakhstan.

Patagonia is a year-round destination for outdoor enthusiasts. The Patagonia Mountain region has been inhabited for more than 10,000 years because of its biological diversity. Today’s visitors come to walk our trails, enjoy the birds, hunt, fish, and participate in other forms of outdoor recreation. Our customers enjoy choosing artistic expressions of the uniqueness of this area.

Comments from some of our artists

Richard Schain

It is a pleasure to display my books at Creative Spirit. There is a non-commercial intimacy there that is entirely lacking elsewhere. May the gallery long prosper!

Helen Chester

Because of the clear organization of the gallery and inventory, everything seems to run smoothly. The artists that work the sales are responsive to customers and engaging and friendly. I find it a welcoming and supportive atmosphere.

Diane West

I love the relaxed, eclectic feel of the gallery. The staff is always helpful and make you feel at home, responsive to customers, engaging and friendly. I find it a welcoming and supportive atmosphere.

Barbara Neville Johnson

Creative Spirit's gallery, specifically the owners, provide a friendly, helpful atmosphere for the artist, great service and prompt monthly payment. Thank you for your continued support of my work.

Murray Bolesta

My presence at this gallery has been such a rewarding experience. As an internet retailer now, I know how hard it is to have the good judgment of appealing to customers from around the world. Creative Spirit has achieved this. Buyers from all over the planet are documented in our Creative Spirit sales. Nothing could be better: the borderlands region is served artfully by this gallery.

Eva Arenas

After many years of gallery woes, I've finally found one that can keep good sales records, have good rapport with the artists, pay on time, and maintain a high level of professionalism in the gallery but make all feel welcome.

Lisa Sharp

I love Creative Spirit Artists Gallery! The art shown in the gallery is high quality and I am proud to be associated with Creative Spirit Artists Gallery!

Donna Reibslager

I've been selling my work at Creative Spirit Artists Gallery since 2006. It is well managed by working artists, and because Patagonia attracts so many visitors, my work is sold to people from all over the US and abroad!
